eventsair

MICE Concierge, the premier event services company, is thrilled to announce its platinum partnership with EventsAir, a leading event management platform. This collaboration marks an exciting chapter, blending MICE Concierge's seasoned events industry expertise with the powerful technology framework and event tools of EventsAir.

Here are big 6 reasons why this is great news for our clients, and those organisations looking to use a comprehensive digital event management platform that offers event planners a framework of digital tools to support the seamless delivery of live and virtual events

1. MICE Concierge are highly proficient super-users of EventsAir, with over 6 years experience of using the platform to deliver a wide range of live and virtual events.
2. EventsAir provides the most feature rich technology platform on the market today, and has everything that Event Planners need to deliver flawless and engaging delegate experiences.
3. Both MICE Concierge and EventsAir have a strong track record in supporting membership organisations, not-for-profits and corporates.
4. MICE Concierge in collaboration with EventsAir and prospective clients, can help to scope, and support the installation of the platform
5. EventsAir offers a set of comprehensive manuals and 'how to' videos, to support the platform's use
6. However for those who are a tech-phobic, looking to deliver an unusually large or complex solution or who are short of experienced event resource, MICE Concierge, can step forward and provide a range of delivery solutions in one, some or all areas of the platform's capabilities.
